

Where have we gone?

I went looking for some flowers
for my bonnie valentine
and though I searched forest, fields, and mountains
I found not one           (not one--Choral Ensemble)
to give to my love           (to give to my love--Choral Ensemble)

(Where have we gone? OoooEEoooo Where have we gone?--Choral Ensemble)

So I went for some stream water sure, that would be just fine
but though I searched with 5,000 divining rods
I found not a drop           (not one--Choral Ensemble)
to give to my love           (to give to my love--Choral Ensemble)

(Where have we gone? OoooEEoooo Where have we gone?--Choral Ensemble)

And then, at last, I looked for the Source and Origin of Love that this story might at least end well           (end well--Choral Ensemble)
and this time I didn't have to look very far in a shower of flowers and rain           (flowers and rain--Choral Ensemble)
10,000 of Them came down and not just to give to my love           (OoooEEoooo--Choral Ensemble)

There for all of us
They're going to restore the Earth

They feel it is a Wonder to Behold           (Wonder to Behold--Choral Ensemble)
They're from the Source and Origin of Love

(Wonder to Behold--Choral Ensemble)

(Source and Origin of Love--Choral Ensemble)

(repeat to fade out)

(OoooEEoooo OoooEEoooo--Choral Ensemble)
